ORDER:

The Regional Director of Resettlement and Employment, Madras has recommended that ex-servicemen who were serving as cinema operators in the army and who propose to appear for the cinema operators examination conducted by the Madras Board of Examiners for Cinema Operators may be exempted from -

(i) the rule requiring service as an apprentice for two years in a cinema theatre under a licensed operator;

(ii) the payment of the fee for the cinema operators' examination; and

(iii) the payment of the fee for the issue of cinema operators' licence.

2. The Government direct that ex-servicemen who have served as first or second grade cinema operators or cinema projectionists in the army shall be exempted from the condition regarding apprenticeship prescribed in para 6 of letter No.Ms.3915, Home, dated 24-9-1940. The Government also direct that ex-army men who appear for the cinema operators' examination should be exempted for a period of two years from the payment of the fee of Rs.6/- (Rupees six) for the issue of the cinema operators' licence by the Chief Electrical Inspector to Government.

3. Ex-army men will not be exempted from the payment of the examination fee of Rs.6/- (Rupees six) payable to the Board of Examiners for Cinema operators to meet the expenditure involved in conducting the examination.
